District Judge of South Kanara.

The Secretary to the Government of Madras,
Finance (Pension) Department,

Sub: Pension - Compassionate gratuity - Late G.Ramachandra Sheregara - Acting process peon -D.M.C. Kundapur - Grant to widow Radhamma -Report -Submission of.

Ref: G.O.No.120, Finance (Pension) Department dated 23-3-1932.

The late G.Ramachandra Sheregara was ~~xxxxxx~~ entertained on 1-3-1941 as acting peon in the District Munsif's Court, Kundapur on a pay of Rs.12 per mensem. Till 15-2-1943 he was acting in short vacancies as process peon on Rs.14/- per mensem. From 1-6-1942 he was acting continuously as peon or process peon till his death on 20-5-1952 at the early age of 33. Under the revised pay rules his pay was refixed at Rs.18 with effect from 1-1-1947 and at the time of his death he was drawing a pay of Rs.22. During his total service of about 10 years and 8 months he never took any leave. His service is reported to be satisfactory. His death was due to heart troubles and asthma.

2. The Revenue Enquiry reveals that the deceased has left behind his widow, the applicant, and 3 minor children of tender age. The small immovable property owned by the deceased and two insurance policies belonging to him were attached in civil Court decrees passed against him. The total amount of debts due by the deceased is reported to be about Rs.1000/-. He was not a subscriber to the General Provident Fund or any other Fund. The applicant and her children have been rendered helpless due to the premature death of the deceased and there are no ~~xxxxxxxxx~~ near relatives who are in a position or under an obligation to support them.

3. I therefore request that the compassionate gratuity admissible under the rules may be sanctioned and made payable to the applicant Radhamma, the widow of the deceased, whose descriptive roll in duplicate is enclosed; and it may be made payable at the Kundapur Sub Treasury. At the time of his death, the deceased was drawing a pay of Rs.22 and D.A. of Rs.19 per

Referred to the District Magistrate, Cawnpore.

Enquiry reveals that the deceased has left immovable property at Cawnpore paying an annual assessment of Rs 8/-. But this property is reported to have been brought for sale in the Civil Court for satisfaction of a Court decree. This fact may likely be enquired in the Court itself. The deceased in this case is reported to have left no other immovable properties or movable properties. The deceased has left his widow and three children, aged 26, 7, 4 and 1¼ years, who were entirely depending upon him. The deceased has got no life insurance policies and

 There are no relatives who are in a position and under an obligation to support the family of the deceased. The descriptive roll of the applicant (in duplicate) in the prescribed form is enclosed. The pecuniary circumstances of the deceased is far from satisfactory.

In view of the facts stated above I recommend that the Compassionate gratuity applied for may be granted to the maximum possible extent.

Recorded by the Revenue Inspector on 28-9-1952 on questioning Radhamma, widow of Gulvadi Ramachandra Sheregara, residing at Maiyad in Baindore village.

Understood the Taluk order N.Ref.C.No.6937/52-B5 dated 22-8-1952 read over. My husband deceased Ramachandra Sheregara has properly paying an assessment of Rs.2/- at Kundapur. But the said property has been brought to sale under a Court decree. Apart from this he has no other movable or immovable property of any sort, I have children-two females and one male. Their names are Sakhu, Shamavathi and Dinakara. Their age is 7 years, 4 years and 1 year 3 months respectively. I and the said children were depending on the deceased. There is none to look after us or to help us with money or to maintain us. Therefore it is prayed that the benign Government may be pleased to grant me gratuity for maintenance as there is no other means for my as well as my 3 minor childrens' livelihood. Heard being read out. It is correct as stated by me.
